

2019 EQUINE ART PROGRAM

SPRING SALE

Back by popular demand! Last year's equine art auction was so much fun for the horses and their friends, we've brought it back. This is an activity that our horses choose to engage in. The paint brush is merely a toy, although, some appear to put more thought into their work than others!

Meet Some Of Our Artistic Inspirations!

There are many animals who have shown an undeniable interest in painting. Some are quite talented! These are our favorites artists.

Pigcasso – this 450lb pig has a contract with Swatch who uses her artwork for wristbands. I guess you could say she's "bringin' home the bacon". <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DxTguzln2z0>

Thialand Elephants –Suda, the most famous of the herd, likes to paint fellow elephants and flowers. <https://youtu.be/JCzHOMk5s7s>

Chollo – A rescued wild Mustang from the plains of Nevada was one of the first animals publicized for his love of painting. <https://youtu.be/NB4IVmL5wkU>

Note: none of these animals were ever forced to paint and they have not had abusive or unethical training.

THANK YOU for having fun with us and supporting these magnificent horses who serve the community in such a special way.

Every dollar donated and every word you pass on is what makes all of this possible.
